

50 Ways to More Money - NOW

How often do you say or think “I can’t afford that”?

This exercise will shift your attention from “I can’t afford that” to “How CAN I afford that?” It will help you open up and access your intuition. Have fun with it!

Write down 50 ways (yes, 50, not just 16 or 46) you can make money right now. It could be anything - nothing is too crazy or far out. You are brainstorming, so don’t filter! The whole point is to get you thinking outside the box.

Think of:

- places you can offer services or products (elance, etsy, fivrr, odesk)
- things you could sell (maybe in storage or in boxes somewhere?)
- people who have expressed an interest in working with you that you’ve not followed up on
- new opportunities you haven’t explored
- people that owe you money - anything related to money that will get your energy moving.

You may get into the 20s or 30s and hit a block. You’ll think there isn’t anything else, but keep going. Relax, breathe, and let answers come to you. Sometimes those are the most valuable answers of all!

Now GO!

OK, now go through the list and start doing! Start with the ones that are 1) easy, 2) fast, 3) fun, or, 4) would feel the most fulfilling to complete.

You don't have to do them all - keep doing until all that is left are the ones that feel energy sucking (or are illegal or unethical - those end up on there sometimes, too!) :) If you decide you want to keep going, start a whole new list from the beginning - you are in a new place now!

Moving even a little bit of energy and thinking outside the box can create big things!
